PLAYER CODE OF CONDUCT AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Polar Kings Athletic Club board of directors is committed to providing hockey players in rural Alberta with a higher level of hockey and to player development. In order to have a successful hockey season it requires full commitment from players to the Players Code of Conduct, to the coach, fellow team members and to the Polar Kings Athletic Club. The following is the Player Code of Conduct that is to be followed and maintained by all players throughout the season.

DRESS CODE

- MANDATORY - The Polar Kings Athletic Club dress attire consists of: designated Polar Kings Athletic Club jacket, dress pants (no jeans or khakis), dress shirt (shirt must be tucked in), OR dress suit/dress pants (discretion of coach) and dress shoes. NO HATS OR TOQUES. All team players are required to be in dress attire for all games (home & away). Non-compliance will result in player not participating in game. The Polar King organization will order track suits, and dry-land apparel for all players and work cost into the budget.
- Players may dress casual while traveling to games on the bus only if approved by the coaching staff.

CURFEW

- Curfew will be established by the team coach.

BEHAVIOUR

- While representing the Polar Kings Athletic Club players shall be self-motivated in the area of conduct. Supervision should not be necessary to ensure conduct is acceptable.
- While participating in any PKAC activities the possession or use of illegal substances, alcohol, tobacco or tobacco products (including but not limited to cigarettes, cigars, bidis, kreteks, chewing tobacco, loose tobacco, snuff, dip, snus) cannabis (in any form) or inhalants (including but not limited to e-cigarettes, vapes, pipe/hookah and shisha) is prohibited.
- No profane language while representing the Polar Kings Athletic Club and the team.
- Players are expected to know what's going on at all times regarding games/practices.
- Show respect to the coaching staff, on ice officials, team mates, manager and parents.
- Work equally hard for yourself and for your team... your team's performance will benefit and so will you. You are part of a team.

BUSSING

- Players are required to ride the bus for all road games unless permission from team officials is obtained for special circumstances well in advance of game day.
- Transportation costs will be divided equally among team members whether or not a player rides the bus. This fee covers a player, one parent or parents if room permits.
- Girlfriends will not be allowed to ride the bus.
- It is recommended that players pack a lunch to be eaten on the bus to and from games. The bus does not stop for meals unless prearranged by team officials.

ACCOMMODATIONS

- Players must stay in the same hotel as team officials.

ATTENDANCE

- Players are required to participate in all practices, games, off ice sessions and special events of the team and the Polar King Athletic Club.
- Injured players are required to attend unless one of the following exemptions are met.

EXEMPTIONS

- ILLNESS / INJURY- Coach or manager must be notified if player is unable to attend.
- SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES - Special circumstances must indeed be "special" to override team commitment. Permission must be requested well in advance if a player is not able to attend a practice or a game.
- SCHOOL WORK / STUDYING - Required school attendance for special events, (award nights, science fair, etc.) is an acceptable excuse for missing practice. Advance notice must be given to the Coach or Manager.

SCHOOLING

- The Polar Kings Athletic Club believes that education is priority.
- Occasionally some games overlap with school attendance. Players are encouraged to maintain quality performance and attendance in school so that an occasional missed day due to hockey will not be a cause for concern.
- Studying and homework may be done on the bus if needed.
- Attempts are made to keep school time missed to a minimum.

ELECTRONICS

No cellphones or cameras permitted in the dressing rooms at any time. Coaching staff will collect all devices at every practice and game; the devices will then be placed on the bench with the coaches. The discipline for an infraction of this policy is as follows: 1st infraction – player will be benched the first period of the next game. 2nd infraction – player will be benched the entire next game. 3rd infraction – player and parents will meet with the executive and the suspension will be determined. Offending player will be required to attend and dress for the game in which the suspension occurs. In all cases, the parents will be informed of the infractions.

SOCIAL MEDIA

The PKAC has adopted and will enforce WMHA Social Media Policy, see pages 12-13. Discipline will be handled by PKAC as directed WMHA guideline.

NON COMPLIANCE OF THE ABOVE WILL NOT BE TOLERATED.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE POLAR KINGS ATHLETIC CLUB, WILL HAVE THE FINAL SAY ON MATTERS OF DISCIPLINE.

COACH AND COACHING STAFF CODE OF CONDUCT AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Social Media and Networking Policy

1. INTRODUCTION

For the purpose of this Social Media and Networking Policy, the policy will encompass public communications through such internet mediums and websites as Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat and any other social media network that allows users to communicate online as well as other forms of electronic communication, but not limited to, methods such as instant messaging, emailing or texting. Email corresponding, texting and social media posts should be encouraged as tools to share information only.

The policy will be applicable to all members of the WMHA Community, including Directors, Teams, WMHA members and staff, on-ice and off-ice officials, billets, players, players' family members and supporters. The WMHA recognizes and appreciates the value of social media and the importance of social networking to all of its stakeholders. The WMHA also respects the right of all Teams and Association personnel to express their views publicly. At the same time we must be aware of the dangers social media and networking can present.

The purpose of this policy is to educate the WMHA Community on the risks of social media and to ensure all Teams and Association personnel are aware that conduct deemed to be inappropriate may be subject to disciplinary action by the WMHA.

2. SOCIAL MEDIA GUIDELINES

- The WMHA holds the entire WMHA Community who participates in social media and networking to the same standards as it does for all other forms of media including radio, television and print. It should be recognized that social media and comments are on the record and can be instantly published and available to the public and media.
- Comments or remarks of an inappropriate nature that are detrimental to a Team, the Association or an individual will not be tolerated and will be subject to disciplinary action.
- Use your best judgment at all times – pause before posting or sending. Once your comments are posted or sent they cannot be retracted. Ultimately, you are solely responsible for your comments.

3. SOCIAL MEDIA VIOLATIONS

The following are examples of conduct through social media and networking mediums that are considered violations of the WMHA Social Media and Networking Policy and may be subject to disciplinary action by the WMHA.

- Any statement deemed to be publicly critical of Association officials or detrimental to the welfare of a member Team, the Association or an individual.

- Negative or derogatory comments about any of the WMHA staff, programs, stakeholders, players or any member of a WMHA Team.
- Any form of bullying, harassment, intimidation or threats against players or officials.
- Photographs, video or comments promoting negative influences or criminal behavior, including but not limited to:
 - drug use, ◦ alcohol abuse, ◦ public intoxication, ◦ hazing ◦ sexual exploitation, etc.
- Online activity that contradicts the current policies of the WMHA
- Inappropriate, derogatory, racist, or sexist comments of any kind, in keeping with the WMHA policies and regulations on these matters.
- Online activity that is meant to alarm other individuals or to misrepresent fact or truth.

Because social media violations may vary in terms of their seriousness and effect, care must be taken to consider sanctions that are appropriate in each situation that presents itself.

Factors that can be considered when dealing with social media violations include:

- The intent of the violator
- Whether harm, physical or otherwise, resulted from the violation
- The circumstances of the violation
- The effect the violation had upon its recipient, the recipient's family, the team, the Association, or the community
- Any previous social media violation history

4. DISCIPLINE

WMHA will investigate reported violation(s) of this policy in the manner set out in the Communication Protocol in WMHA policies for other types of violations. If the investigation determines that a violation has occurred, the WMHA Executive involved will impose an appropriate suspension. Any appeal of the suspension will be dealt with as set out in WMHA policies for other types of suspensions.

Possible disciplinary measures therefore depend on a number of factors. Please consider the following suggested responses for various conducts:

- Implicit or implied threats of death or serious bodily harm: indefinite suspension, referral to WMHA Executive for investigation and punishment (also refer to police) - Encouraging someone to do themselves serious harm: indefinite suspension, referral to WMHA Executive for investigation
- Posting of pictures of a threatening nature: indefinite suspension, referral to WMHA Executive for investigation and punishment (also refer to police) - Slurs against someone's race, religion, sex, or sexual orientation: lengthy suspension - Slurs against another or their family: warning or short suspension - Posting comments and/or pictures of self of an implied sexual nature: short suspension - Posting comments and/or pictures of someone else of an implied sexual nature: indefinite suspension, referral to WMHA Executive for investigation and punishment (also may refer to police)

- Gossip - Posting or sending cruel gossip to damage a person's reputation and relationships with friends, family, and acquaintances: warning or short suspension
- Breaking into someone's e-mail or other online account and sending messages that will cause embarrassment or damage to the person's reputation and affect his or her relationship with others: indefinite suspension, referral to WMHA Executive for investigation and punishment (also refer to police)
- Posting or sending unwanted or intimidating messages: suspension
- Tricking someone into revealing secrets or embarrassing information, which is then shared online: short suspension
- Negative or derogatory comments about Team, etc.: warning or short suspension

5. SUMMARY

When using social media and networking mediums, the WMHA community should assume at all times they are representing the WMHA and/or its Teams. All members of the WMHA community should remember to use the same discretion with posting or commenting on social media and networking as they do with other traditional forms of media. THINK BEFORE YOU POST.
